FINAL CONFLICT

Final Conflict is produced to offer people a political, cultural and economic answer to the forces of Internationalism.

Whilst most of our articles etc. are serious, FC does at times use humour and on occassion takes a light-hearted look at the world, for Nationalists must take a brake now and then.

It is published by National Revolutionary activists and is Independent of all political organisations; though editorially it supports the International Third Position (ITP).

FC welcomes contributions from readers, which upon publication become the copyright of FC. Written matter should be typed in double spacing and artwork should be in black ink.

Those wishing to reproduce articles, artwork, interviews, photographs etc. from FC should first gain the written permission of the editors, and then publish the name and address of FC with the reprinted matter.

OUR VIEW

Western Europe seems to be rolling towards 'union' under the infamous Maastricht treaty. The 'Powers That Be' want this to happen and will allow nothing to stand in the way. The people of Denmark voted "NO" - so they re-worded the referendum and put it to them again. After being hounded by the media and all the political parties, the people of Denmark voted "Yes" the second time. NB: The first vote went against the rulers' wishes, so they applied pressure and got the result they wanted. When the French people narrowly voted "Yes" - were they given another referendum to allow them a second chance to vote "NO" - of course not. THE JEWISH/MASONIC POWER WANTS "EUROPEAN UNION" AT ANY COST.

The peoples of Europe (and some "rebel" politicians) are now being told that this will not mean a "Federal Europe" with all the power at the centre. The 'hidden rulers' have also hinted that they want the other European States (once they are economically sound) to join.

What is happening before our eyes is the creation of a "United States of Europe". When the USA first came about the Federal system was but a shadow of what it is now, with more pwer rested in the individual States. Now virtually all power is centralised in the hands of the Zionist Occupation Government (ZOG) in Washington, DC. We will see exactly the same happen in Europe. The bankers and bureaucrats are out to grab as much power as they can.

OK, we don't like the liberal-democratic governments that exist in London, Paris, Rome etc. but the answer isn't to take power from a Nation-State body of Jewish/Mason controlled perverts, crooks and imbeciles and give it to a similar, but much more powerful body in Brussels (or wherever the Euro-State finally settles).

This is the first hurdle in their quest for ultimate power. They control the Federal U.S. Govt. They will control the Federal European Govt. They eventually, under the promise of "world peace" and the banner of "the brotherhood of man", will go all out for a WORLD GOVERNMENT.

Many years ago David Ben Gurion a key player in Organised Jewry said that the World Government (as prophesised in Jewish teaching) would be established in 1997 and that Jerusalem would be the seat of the World Government. A little far fetched? Well, he said it, not us. Besides, not so long ago the idea of an all powerful European Govt. would have been ridiculous. If the 'Powers That Be' want World Government - they'll do everything they can to get it.

Their dream is the ultimate blasphemy, for their oh so cherished World Government will rule over a cultureless, multi-racial, violent, drug-riddled world. The family will have been decimated by divorce, abortion, homosexuality etc. Their world police will protect them in their ivory towers, whilst we suffer the effects of their madness on the streets. That is, unless we start the fight back now.

In Europe we need to fight the 'Union' effectively. Most people are in favour of it because they don't know any better or they fear the alternative. Let's show them there is a better way. In America more and more people are fed up with the Federal system. We need to channel those feelings to bring the ZOG system down.

There is so much to be done, but so little time. However, we have common sense and public opinion on our side. Nobody likes the faceless bureaucrats. Nobody likes the corrupt politicians. Nobody likes the idea of being ruled from afar. We can beat the Jewish/Masonic Power on this one. They're not invincible. We can do it. Together we can beat the power mad scum who want to rule over us. LET'S DO IT!

A LIE TOO FAR

Read how Searchlight the 'anti-fascist' magazine is controlled by the State to gather information on the "extreme right" and the left. Produced by a conglomeration of anarchist and leftist groups and individuals, this booklet is extremely interesting and finally destroys the myth that Searchlight is a fair and unbiased supplier of info to the left and the media on the "far right".

For your copy send £2.20 to FC (£2.50 Europe - £3 USA, Australia etc.) Make cheques etc out to 'FINAL CONFLICT'.

ANNE FRANK STRIKES BACK

THE ANNE FRANK CHILDREN TO CHILDREN APPEAL is the name of a new charity raising money for the Bosnians (Muslims), in the UK. They claim that to many kiddies out in Bosnia, Anne Frank is a bit of a heroine as she stood up to oppression in WW2 (yawn), just as the Bosnians are now, according to this "charity". However for those of us who live in the real world and are interested in helping those standing against the aggression of the expansionist Communist Serb/Yugoslav army, thankfully 'EMEGENCY AID FOR CROATIA' is around. If you want more info. write to: EAC, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Speakers and video films can be arranged for meetings. Get in touch now.

BOYCOTT THE BIG ISSUE

THE BIG ISSUE- "helping the homeless to help themselves" or so say the producers of the paper sold on the streets by homeless and ex-homeless people. There is a sinister side to The B.I. though. In one issue (picked at random - Issue 28) there is: May Day greetings from Trade Unions, usually only found in Communist/left wing papers; adverts for AIDS tests; an article on the number of Black homeless people in London [virtually non-existent when compared to the vast numbers of White homeless people - Ed.]; a write up on faggot singer Jimmy Sommerville; and worst of all an advert from the 'Terence Higgins Trust' [a faggot "charity" - Ed.] telling poofs what they can do to each other without catching AIDS.

How this paper can be sold openly and without a warning on the front when it carries things like the poof advert is a sick joke. It is obviously either a Red paper or is being used by them and so is just as bad.

If you see someone selling it, tell them what you think of it. If pressure is put on them they may stop selling it which would financially hit the paper. Tell your friends and relatives not to buy it too. Let's hit them where it hurts. 'BOYCOTT THE BIG ISSUE',

SQUADRON...SQUADRON...SQUADRON...SQUADRON...SQUADRON...SQUADRON...SQUADRON

1. When is your new LP going to be released?
S: The simple answer is - we don't know. We sent it to Rock-O-Rama 4 months ago, but after the recent raid, the Anti Defamation League are hanging around Herbert and he's keeping a low profile.

We've just changed the cover as the original had a city in flames and people hanging from the trees (guess who?) but due to recent events in Germany, we didn't think that had any chance of passing censorship.

We hope it's out soon, but we have very little say and very little contact with Rock-O-Rama - the whole situation is pretty pathetic - English Rose have waited over a year - but that's with Rebelles, so we'll just have to stick it out with Rock-O-Rama.

2. How does the new LP compare with the previous two?
S: We used a different studio, so it's a lot more powerful and a lot heavier. There are 12 songs on it, covering the full spectrum of music. From basic Oi, to Heavy Rock to Thrash Metal - all with a very strong political message. It's a better album than the first two. Hopefully it will be out in a month or so and everybody will be able to judge it for themselves.

3. What's your view on the current Nationalist scene?
S: We were sad to see the demise of Skullhead, a very good band and a great bunch of blokes. Hopefully they will carry on in some form or other, minus Kev. Ian & Skrewdriver are playing quite regularly these days, but there are very few support bands. Razor's Edge and Celtic Warrior seem to be the only other bands playing regularly. I saw Brutal Attack on Saint George's Day and it looks as though they'll be back gigging regularly, which is a good sign. I think British Standard should be well worth seeing, but I've yet to see them myself. The two tracks they did on the 'Last Chance' compilation impressed me and I hope they continue to grow. The attendance at gigs is solid at the moment although I'm sure everyone is feeling totally cheesed off with the job situation in this country at the moment. I'm sure half the crowd don't turn up 'cos they can't afford it, what with the miles you need to travel to see bands these days.

Basically, the scene is still strong. There are loads of people out there organising and working at putting on gigs and organising meetings. We'll be gigging again soon, when we sort out a drummer - then we'll get stuck back in.

4. What advice would you give to people new to the scene?
S: I'd advise them to learn "everything" about what we stand for and why we're fighting, 'cos they're going to get asked enough times.

Never trust coppers, just keep "silent", 95% of people are convicted on their own evidence. Never plead guilty. Never trust the press, in fact, avoid them.

Try and get in with your local crowd. Most gigs are word of mouth these days and you'll miss half of them if you don't know anyone else. Then again, it's bloody hard if you're "new to the scene" 'cos we're all wary of "red infiltrators".

Don't be afraid to talk to people, get to know someone in a band, then you'll have someone to vouch for you. Then again, we all trusted Nicky Crane and Neil Parish . . .

I don't know, I wouldn't want to be "new to the scene" myself. Just get your face seen, get to know a few faces, know what you're talking about and follow your heart. You've got to have half a brain to find the gigs these days and you need to be psychic to know they're on.

5. What are your views on:

a. The war in former Yugoslavia?
S: In a war between Fascists, Communists and Muslims we'll side with the Fascists. All this UN/EEC sanctions and peace proposals is a joke. Israel haven't kept one "peace promise" in 25 years and what do we do to them? NOTHING.

b. The war in Ulster?
S: The IRA still insist on blowing up civilians, and they still think it's a good policy. The British people STILL don't realise that we're all targets. 99% of the Irish people know that the Irish Government has got enough problems running Eire, and that trying to run Northern Ireland as well is totally beyond their means. The IRA has no support whatsoever, apart from a few idiots in America (Noraid), Col. Gadaffi and the British Government for letting the bastards live. If the IRA were real Nationalists, they'd have been rounded up years back.

c. South Africa?
S: Nice to see that the head of the Communist Party and ANC second in command got assasssinated. The AWB are holding strong. I can see full scale racial war only just around the corner. Victory to the AWB. Let's hope the White community sticks together.

d. Abortion?
S: On the issue of abortion, we take the same line as the BNP. We oppose "abortion on demand". The White Race is fading fast and families should be growing, not taking the easy way out. Don't do the crime, if you can't do the time.

Abortion is only acceptable in cases where medical evidence shows severe handicap or disfigurement, and obviously in cases of pregnancy through rape.

[NB: FC does not agree on this point. Abortion is abortion. Murder is murder. The handicapped need care, not extermination. Why violate a woman for a second time and why should a baby die for the crime of his/her father? Besides, pregnancy after rape, because of the trauma involved, is extremely rare.]

6. Anything to add?
S: Thanks to Final Conflict for an interesting interview. Sorry if I waffled on. Racial Regards to all our friends and supporters. We hope to be back gigging again soon. Our Time Will Come.

REPRESSION IN ITALY

The Italian State, in an effort to curb the growth of NR Movements has passed a virulent anti-Nationalist "law". Our Italian correspondant updates the situation . . .

Recently in Italy the State has unleashed a massive attack against National Revolutionary organisations.

Following the passing of Minister Mancino's decree, law no. 124, several steps were taken by the State designed to curb the activities of Movements like Movimento Politico of Rome, Veneto Front Skins, and Azione Skinhead of Milan.

In Rome and Frascati, two headquarters of the Third Positionist Movimento Politico were shut down along with the shop 'Bunker'. In order to avoid worse consequences Meridiano Zero decided to dissolve themselves.

The leaders of the Movement suffered personal freedom restrictions which means that they cannot go out of their home towns and must stay at home after 9 O'Clock in the evening. They must inform the police station anytime they want to anywhere else.

This is the situation in Italy now. In spite of this climate of repression, a couple of gigs have taken place in the last two months, with new bands like AD 124 from Milan (whose name comes from the new anti-fascist law) and Bete et Mechamt from Rome. Both bands are about to produce their debut demo tapes.

Despite the harsh, unjust decree, by a State that is corrupt to the core, the NR Movement in Italy has refused to surrender and is fighting on bravely. The people there are an inspiration for all of us.

NO WE WON'T GO AWAY

There's been a lot of gossip about "infiltration" of animal rights groups by 'fascists' (see FC 3) but even our enemies prove that this is not the case.

In an anti-fascist article in 'Arkangel' 3 Sonja Morris said that our views have "a 'back to the land' evocation of 'Blood and Soil', itself popularised by Hitler's agriculture minister, Richard Darre." As this was back in the 1930's I hardly think we are "jumping on the bandwaggon". In fact new groups to join our struggle like the Hunt Sabs and ALF should not waste time having a go at us. To be honest though the ALF isn't so bad on this point, as Ronnie Lee, the founder/leader (of the ALF) said: "No matter what one feels about racism (sic), can it be right, say, that a vegetarian supporter of the NF should be prevented from joining an animal rights group, when membership is open to, for example, a meat-eating member of the conservative party or a socialist angler?" ('Arkangel' 3).

We then had a daft letter in 'Howl', the Hunt Sabs mag telling us to vote labour, as they were the first party to have a policy against fox hunting. This is incorrect as the NF was the first party to adopt such a policy (early 1980's - Ed.). The NF had this policy before it was popular while the vermin in labour waited until they thought it would gain them a few votes.

And the anarchists? - "The (Class War) Federation has no links with, or interest in, the animal rights movement" ("Unfinished Business... The Politics of Class War" page 13, 1992). So there you have it folks. The cause of animal welfare was, is, and always will be, a 'fascist' cause, so get out there and do it! As it said in 'into the 1990's', "if not you, who? If not now, when?"

If you'd like a copy of Arkangel send £1.80 to: BCM 9240, London, WC1N 3XX, England. It's always a good read and has bits for the children to colour in. Best not to tell them you got their address from FC or that you're a Nationalist though just in case - know what I mean mate? HSA MEMBER.

For a list of top quality imported tapes at low prices, send 2 stamps (or an IRC) to: Boadicea Music Club, c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Includes: Metallica, Megadeth, Guns N Roses, Deep Purple, Nirvana, Enya etc.

~~~ APOLOGY TIME ~~~

Unfortunately, due to the lack of space, there is no 'Friends & Enemies' this issue. We hope to have it back next issue. We've also had no room for some of the articles sent in, but again, we hope to feature them next time (thanks on this score goes to The Urban Spaceman, Warlord from Coventry and the Ysgol Defender).

THE TURNER DIARIES

by Andrew Macdonald. £6 inc. p&p.

When, in the not too distant future, the U.S. government bans the private possession of firearms and stages the Gun Raids to round up suspected gun owners, Earl Turner and his fellow patriots are forced underground. The hated Equality Police begin hunting them down, but the patriots fight back with a campaign of sabotage and assassination.

The FBI has called The Turner Diaries "the most dangerous book in print today". Liberals in the news media likewise have condemned it and it was the subject of a 1988 Hollywood film Talk Radio.

HUNTER

by Andrew Macdonald. £6 inc. p&p.

Oscar Yaeger, a former combat pilot in Vietnam, now a comfortable yuppie working as a Defense Department consultant in America's capital surveys the race mixing, the open homosexuality, the growing influence of drugs and the darkening complexion of the population as the tidal wave of non-White immigration swells. He is compelled to fight the evil which afflicts America in the 1990s as his conscience will not let him ignore it, and joining it is inconceivable.

He declares war on the corrupt politicians and media masters. And when Oscar Yeager goes on the warpath, you'd better not be in his way!

BOYCOTT Boots

'Boots' the Chemist own their own vivisection laboratories where they experiment on animals, purely for profit. The tests are long, cruel, painful and totally useless. The drugs they then sell to the public are a risk to human health.

Don't shop there.

Smashing 'Boots' windows with a 'Black Widow' catapault, available from gun shops for less than £10 is illegal, but is no doubt a great help to the campaign.

Fortress

1. How long have FORTRESS been together as a band and what were the main reasons for your formation?
F: We´ve been together two years now. We formed in June '91. We got together as we all had an interest in music and thought that a band would help the Skinhead/Nationalist scene in general.

2. What´s the line-up of the band?
F: Sid - lead guitar. Anthony - guitar. Dave - bass. Andrew - drums. Scott - vocals.

3. Are you pleased with your EP out on Rock O Rama Records? Do you have any more plans in this field?
F: We were reasonably pleased with the first EP, but feel it could be better "sound quality" wise. We´ve recently finished our new album "Seize the Day". It features twelve songs such as "Bonded by Blood", "Victory or Valhalla", "White Wolf", "Now is the Time" and "Ideals".

4. Are you affiliated to any political Movements? What do you think of National Action and the Australian Nationalist Movement?
F: FORTRESS, as a band, supports all Movements that put Race and Nation first. Band members are each involved with political Movements to some degree. National Action is growing stronger due to a more vibrant leadership. The ANM has ceased due to the imprisonment of its leader and hierarchy. They are currently serving unjust sentences due to their "crimes" being "racially motivated". NATIONAL ACTION, WAR and the ANSM are active here.

5. Do you think the "Union Jack" should remain on the Australian flag?
F: No, I believe that Australia´s true flag is that which was flown by the miners at the Eureka Stockade and Lambing Flat - the Southern Cross. The various symbols of the White Race should fly alongside. We cannot attain a true national identity without our own flag of independence. The Commonwealth of Nations is a charity organisation for Third World parasites which Australia should have nothing to do with.

FORTRESS IN ACTION

6. What are the main problems facing Nationalists in Australia? Is Asianisation a problem?
F: Heading the list would be apathy and ignorance. The majority of people just don´t seem to realise or want to realise what is happening to our country and people. Asianisation is actively encouraged by corrupt politicians who in turn with Zionist Big Business conspire to make us part of Asia. Cheap imports, cheap labour and the loss of our culture will make us slaves in our land. We are fighting back and we will win.

7. Do Australians spend a lot of time drinking Fosters and surfing, or is that a false media stereotype here in Britain?
F: No-one I know drinks Fosters - it´s bloody horrible! Most drink Vic Bitter or Tooleys. No seriously to some extent the stereotype is true (surfing???) and I guess, as in many countries, sports, recreation and having a good time have taken prime importance over the issues that really matter.

8. What Australians, past and present, inspire you ?
F: N.S.W. Premier, Jack Lang who took on the banks and was a great supporter of the White Australia Policy, Henry Lawson the great Nationalist poet and author and Ned Kelly who fought the system and warned of the perils of Asian immigration, inspire us in our fight as does the spirit of Gallipoli and the charge of the Lighthorse.

9 Is the Australian political system corrupt?
F:If every corrupt Australian politician was hung for treason, we´d have a massive rope shortage.

10. Have you played many concerts? Which were the best and worst - and why?
F: We´ve played around 10 gigs. I think the best was our first. It was the first concert in Melbourne for a long time and we all had a lot of fun. we´ve never not enjoyed playing.

11. Do the Reds and/or police hassle you much?
F: We don´t have much of a problem with Reds as our concerts are kept pretty low-key and they´re cowardly scum anyway. The police (A.S.I.O.) are always sniffing about,trying to get information out of friends of the band. We refuse to be intimidated.

12. If you could cure one of society´s ills, what would it be?
F: I don´t believe it´s possible to cure one of society´s ills. The whole fabric of society must be changed now. Things have gone too far. It´s all or nothing!

13. Do you think, as a band, you are successful in spreading the Nationalist message or do you think you are merely "preaching to the converted"?
F: We get a variety of people at our gigs, not just

ON THE FRONTLINE Nationalist zine. $2 (USA) $2.50 (world) from: PO Box 304, Caldwell, NJ 07006, USA. Get one today.

Skinheads but people into heavy metal and those who simply like the music and message. Many of these people were introduced to our music by friends and have become regular "supporters" of Fortress and the scene. If we are "preaching to the converted"; at least through our concerts and music, we are keeping people interested and motivated. To lose good comrades just due to inactivity and boredom is a great loss.

14. What are your views on aborigines? Would you give them a separate homeland or is there an argument for sending them elsewhere?
F: To be honest, the solution to the aboriginal question is probably to give them their own homeland. But I don't know how long they'd survive without handouts. There aren't many full-blooded aboriginals left and they are a very small part of Australia's general population. Most "land rights" activists are either "left-wingers" or have very little aboriginal blood in them at all.

15. Do you have a lot of contact with Nationalists in other continents and Nations?
F: We receive mail from and are in contact with comrades all over the white world. A lot can be learnt from movements in other countries. White Unity is the key to victory.

16. What are your views on usury? Do you agree with the current banking system?
F: Usury is wrong. The banking system should operate as a non-profit entity and be nationalised. The Nationalist government should control the issue of money and the stock exchange and foreign banks should be abolished. Repatriation is the first step, but monetary problems will need to be solved also.

17. Thanks for doing this interview. Any last words to our readers?
F: Thanks to Final Conflict for the interview and our best wishes and thanks to our friends in Great Britain and around the world. Together we'll win.

GLASTONBURY '93
(99,999 scum and me)

EARLY HOURS OF Friday morning one 'fascist' arrived at the Glastonbury festival. There appeared to be two queues of people gaining entrance. The first queue consisted of muge who paid about £60 for a ticket. The second queue (which I quickly joined) was nimbly scaling a 12 foot wall.

I thus bedded down for the evening having got in scot free and not even having paid to travel there. At one stage in the evening, a black gentleman interrupted my pleasant repose and asked me if I wanted any Coke. Damned cheek really - and I wasn't even thirsty!

Friday was really crap and boring, so I'm not going to tell you about it, although of course the Cider Bus was reasonably priced at £1.60 a pint (after all it was good scrumpy cider).

Saturday was bloody good. The Hothouse Flowers, the Sore Doctors, Christie Moore, some black chap doing a very bad impersonation of Jimmy Hendrix, and the one and only, the immortal, the wonderful Kinks played. Sadly during the Crusty Moore bash, which was very enjoyable I was distracted by a middle class toe rag trying to sell me a 'Troops Out' paper. I declined and continued to dance. I know I might gain a few enemies here, but in my considered opinion ("what?" - Ed.) old Crusty played even better than (shock, horror) the legendary Kinks, who weren't bad (for free, chuckle chuckle).

On Sunday I sat around deeply regreting the fact that I hadn't taken any sun tan lotion, as it was an absolute scorcher. I caught part of Billy Bragg's act but he was singing some nonsense about poofters so I went for a walk (not too close to the toilets which stank really badly).

Sadly I had to leave before Van Morrison had finished playing, otherwise I might have had to pay to get home. Won't see you all again next year.

Who's been a silly boy then?

Tim, brother of the lead singer of 'the Blaggers ITA' (Matty Blagger) the crappy Red Action band, that's who. The house he lives in in Islington (or so he reckons) is owned by Fatty Buster Bloodvessel (of Bad Manners). He also likes to show impressionable people the front cover of 'The Sun' where his photo appeared as a football hooligan some time ago. (Don't believe the Tory Press Comrades) He apparently also enjoys doing well dodgy business deals in the (Sir George) Robey pub opposite Finsbury Park tube station - what a Capitalist eh Comrades? We think a purge is needed...

Keith - Well done mann, keep on running. Alfred.

Learning From The Past

CORNELIU ZELEA CODREANU & THE IRON GUARD

THE IRON GUARD, also known as the Legionary Movement is thought to be the oldest Nationalist Movement in Europe. Its leader Corneliu Zelea Codreanu began to fight Communism in 1919 when he was a youngster at the University of Iasi, a town that was well known for its Nationalism.

FEAR OF SOVIETS

The Communists had already taken over the University and the town itself was at a virtual standstill because of strikes and leftist agitation. The proud patriotic Romanians lived in constant fear because of the Soviet power just across the Nistru river.

Codreanu decided to join a group called the 'Guard of National Consciousness' and soon became close friends with its leader Constantin Pancu.

CLOSE KNIT

After three years Codreanu completely changed the views of the student body. Codreanu had drawn around him a close knit group of highly religious, Nationalist students whose motto was 'God, Fatherland, Army and King'.

The Communist students, many of whom were Jews, at this time wore Russian side caps as a sign of support for the Bolsheviks.

Codreanu and his followers fought constantly with the Reds and when the Jewish student Spiegler started a student strike, Codreanu's group siezed the dining room and chanted "he who does not work, does not eat".

RED FLAG

They were in action once more when Codreanu left college. A general strike was called, the Red flag was hoisted in the town and the king's picture was smashed and replaced with one of Karl Marx. Most of the Communists were situated in a factory. Codreanu and his followers marched through the town singing Romanian anthems and climbed onto the roof, to the disbelief of the Communists and replaced the Red flag with the Romanian tricolour.

These kind of activities continued until June 24th 1927 when Codreanu called together his most loyal and battle tested comrades and proclaimed the founding of 'The Legion of the Archangel Michael' with the following words: "Those whose faith in God and the Legion have no boundary should enter our ranks. Those who waver and doubt should stay out."

HIGHLY DISCIPLINED

The Legion grew into a movement of hundreds of thousands throughout the country. Only the most highly disciplined and dedicated were accepted into the ranks.

One of the main reasons for the large scale support for the Legion was due to the Romanian government in 1923 ammending the constitution so that all Jews in Romania could become citizens.

There was good reason for the anger of the Romanian people. The Jews were an obviously alien people who differed from the Romanians in language, dress, religion, Race, custom and spirit.

SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION

Codreanu believed that what was needed was a complete Spiritual revolution. He set about forming nests (cells) of Legionaries nationwide. The Legionary nest was a group of people numbering 3 - 13 who consisted of men who had the same ideals but had to be taught to work together for a common goal. These men worked, sang, distributed propaganda and held weekly meetings together and developed a Comradeship that the State could not destroy.

One of the most important aspects of the Legion's work was voluntary labour. The peasants had been forgotten by the government, but not by the Iron Guard.

They worked alongside peasants and helped build bridges, dig gardens and build houses so the Romanian people would not have to go to the banks and wear the yolk of usury. The hostile Romanian government could see what was happening. The Iron Guard was building a Counter Power to that of the corrupt old system.

MANY DIED

The government's response was hellish. Legionaries were imprisoned for being "Revolutionaries" and were tortured. Many died, but many more emerged more determined than ever for a Legionary victory. Their militant religious views were to help them in these dark days and it was while Codreanu was serving a prison sentence that he decided to choose St. Michael as the Patron Saint of the Iron Guard.

EXTENSIVE TRAVEL

Codreanu and the Legionaries travelled extensively across the country on foot and on horseback they would travel to the rural communities and villages and sing songs about Romania's heroic past.

They built up a kinship with the folk and the green-shirted Iron Guard laboured and worked within the community telling people of the vision of a new Romania where what matters is a person's faith and character, not the size of his purse.

Time and time again the members of the Legion were imprisoned on false charges only to be repeatedly freed due to public demand. But every time they were imprisoned members were murdered and even the youngest of them tortured.

THE IRON GUARD

In 1931 the Legionary Movement established a militant wing named the 'Iron Guard' which used the iron grid as its symbol.

Almost immediately the movement was banned after a Nationalist student who supported the Legion but was not a member assassinated a cabinet minister. Although the courts found the Legionary Movement innocent of the crime the government still banned it.

Despite their hardships, the movement continued to grow. Their Workers Corps alone consisted of 13 thousand men.

SPAIN

The Iron Guard did not confine its fight against Communism to Romania. A Legionary Troop joined in the Spanish campaign and they lost two of their finest men in Ion Mota and Marin.

As the Legionaries strength grew it looked like a Legionary government was a real possibility. However, their main opponent was King Carol II and his Jewess mistress Magda Lupescu (Wolff). Carol refused to recognise a Legionary government and set up a puppet right wing government and put the hated Minister of Justice Armand Calinescu in control. This vile creature immediately rounded up all known members of the Legion and had them imprisoned.

MARTYRS

On the terrible night of November 29th 1938, Codreanu along with 13

other high ranking officers were taken from their cells. They were put into trucks and driven to a secluded forest where these brave martyrs were strangled and then shot in the back of the head. They had gallons of sulphuric acid tipped over them and were buried under a thousand pound concrete slab.

ABDICATION

Shortly after this the peoples' anger was such thar Carol was forced to abdicate and flee for his life.

His regime was followed by a short lived Legionary government, but with an opponent of the Legionaries in charge of the army they were able to topple the Legion's government in 1941.

ANARCHY

Once this happened the country was in anarchy. At this time Hitler was in a strong position in Europe but needed control of Romania. With Ion Antonescu in 'control' all the dealings were made with him. Among his conditions were that the Iron Guard would be suppressed so that that Antonescu would be free to keep control.

The Iron Guard offered no resistance but were taken to Germany and imprisoned.

MISTAKE

Hitler was soon to realise his mistake however when Antonescu surrendered to the Soviets on August 23rd 1944. Immediately all members of the Iron Guard were freed and straight away almost all joined the Waffen SS and volunteered to carry out raids behind the enemy lines in Romania to try and rescue their beloved country.

Horia Sima took control of the movement and they stationed their headquarters in Vienna. The Legionaries resorted to parachute drops and soon created a large resistance movement against the Soviet forces.

However when the allies took control of Vienna in 1945 it left the Legionary resistance stranded on its own in occupied Romania.

Instead of surrendering the Iron Guard fought a life and death struggle with the Bolsheviks preferring an honourable death to a life under the anti-Christ Communists' rule.

SUFFERINGS

The Legionaries captured were imprisoned and suffered the worst tortures imaginable. The sufferings of these heroes are recorded in the superb book 'The Anti-Humans' by D. Bacu.

Many believe that this was the end of the Legionary Movement. This is not so. Many Legionaries live on in exile and their beliefs still play an important role in the emerging rise of Nationalism in Eastern Europe. When Ceaucescu was defeated in 1989 many 'Western' papers recorded the sightings of "green-shirted" men fighting and leading the angry people and distributing 'fascist' literature. Whether these people were actually there or not is irrelevant in reality, for many people in Romania the Iron Guard is an example to follow and their spirit was never crushed.

SPIRIT LIVES ON

But it's not only in Romania that the beliefs of the Legionaries live on. In countries such as Spain and Poland the name and memory of Codreanu, and his Legion, are still sung and praised.

Across Europe the ITP will always remember the sacrifices of these gallant heroes. Codreanu's ideals of the 'new man' willing to sacrifice all, and the Spiritual Revolution that would sweep away the Materialist creeds of Marxism and Capitalism, are ingrained in our minds and our hearts.

When faced with the choice between Communism or Death, the Iron Guard's answer will be our answer - "LONG LIVE DEATH!"

THE RULES OF THE LEGION

1. THE RULE OF DISCIPLINE. Only in this matter will you be victorious. Follow your nest leader through thick and thin.

2. THE RULE OF WORK. Don't work for material gain but for the satisfaction that you have placed a brick for the foundation of a new Romania.

3. THE RULE OF SILENCE. Speak only when neccessary. Perform deeds. Let others be chatterboxes.

4. THE RULE OF SELF EDUCATION. You must become a new man, a hero. Do all your education in the nest. Learn well to help the Legionary victory.

5. THE RULE OF MUTUAL AID. Help your brother overcome any misfortune. NEVER abandon him.

6. THE RULE OF HONOUR. A Legionary must always march the path of honour. Fight and never become a lowly coward. Leave infamous deeds to others. LONG LIVE DEATH.

TOWARDS THE LEGIONARY VICTORY

Look them right in the eye - all your tyrants! Endure with resignation all blows, support any torture, for the sacrifice of all of us will be the foundation of iron, of broken bodies, and of tortured souls for victory.

Those from among us who will fall, will have heroes' names and graves!

While those who will kill us, will carry the stigma of traitor and will be accursed from generation to generation.

From the depths the Legionary emerges victorious! With his soul of rock. Those believing they can defeat him as well as those who think they can buy him, will be convinced soon - but too late - that they were mistaken.

CORNELIU ZELEA CODREANU

ONE LAW FOR THEM . . .

"Do not the Jewish people . . . discriminate through the application to non-Jews of specific words, jokes etc? . . . Anyone who has received a rigorous religious education, as I have, and who attends synagogue with any regularity, is subjected to repeated harangues on the superiority of the Jewish faith to all others, the superiority of the Jewish race, and the inferiority of all other cultures and peoples . . .

"The terms goy or goyim . . . mean . . . 'not one of us' . . . there is also the hateful yok . . . But worst of all is sheigetz. It is the Hebrew for 'abomination' and it has several Yiddish variations such as shiksa, meaning 'female abomination' and even shikselke meaning 'little female abomination.'

"About twenty years ago there was a sustained campaign to purge every English dictionary of any pejorative reference to Jews. It is perhaps just as well that no one at the time thought it necessary to look up references to gentile in Yiddish or Hebrew dictionaries . . . We have since the war persuaded the churches to eliminate the less wholesome references to Jews in Christian teaching. Is there no way of eliminating the less wholesome attitudes to the gentiles in Jewish teaching?"

HATRED AND CONTEMPT

These quotations are from an article by Chaim Bermant in the Jewish Chronicle, May 17th 1991. It shows very clearly how Jews regularly get away with expressions of hatred and contempt which would lead to a Race Act prosecution if a White person said the same sort of thing about the Jews. Mr. Bermant's forthright rejection of the Jewish Master Race belief is unusual and welcome.

Even here though, we don't get the whole truth about the depths of the anti-gentile hatred routinely taught in religious education classes in Jewish schools, in synagogues and by many Jewish parents. For the truth is that goyim doesn't only mean 'not people like us.' It also means 'cattle', which is exactly how the "holy" books of Judaism tell their people to view and treat people of other Races. [And we know how they treat cattle - ritual slaughter, Ed]. Even more offensive to White women is the secondary meaning of shiksa - 'unclean meat.'.

What is particularly outrageous is that the Race Laws which would jail any of us for using such hate-filled terminology for Jews, were first suggested by the Board of Deputies of 'British' Jews; drafted by Jewish lawyers Bindman and Lester, introduced into parliament by Jews and voted for by every Jewish M.P. "One law for them - and one for 'people like us'."

Jewish arrogance has led them on many occassions to "overstep the mark" publicly, but privately, their hatred for Gentiles has been constant. A sure case of "One Law For Them".

WHAT ABOUT DEAD GENTILES?

In Germany, according to the Daily Telegraph (17/5/93) "There is concern among the Jewish community that guilt for the holocaust is being deliberately equated with honourable battlefield deaths in an attempt to pretend that "all dead are the same"."

What this actually means is that the leaders of Organised Jewry don't want their mythical six million dead Jews even compared to dead gentile goyim (cattle). After all, we are forever hearing of the "six million" and how the Jews "suffered" - but when do we ever hear about the millions killed in the Soviet Union or China? And you can bet your bottom dollar that they number at least ten times as many as the supposed six million Jews.

Could it be that 10 dead goyim aren't worth one mythical dead Jew? Surely not . . .

WHO TOOK THE SLAVES TO AMERICA?

All too often White people are made to feel guilty about the slave trade and it is often used to make us accept the suicidal multi-racial societies of the USA, UK etc. But let's see who is really responsible for the slave trade. Who should the guilt really be poured upon?

Ship Name	Owner(s)
Abigail	Aaron Lopez, Moses Levy and Jacob Franks
Crown	Isaac Levy and Nathan Simpson
Nassau	Moses Levy
Four Sisters	Moses Levy
Anne & Eliza	Justus Bosch and John Abrams
Prudent Betty	Henry Cruger and Jacob Pheonix
Hester	Mordecai and David Gomez
Elizabeth	David and Mordecai Gomez
Antigua	Nathan Marston and Abram Lyell
Betsy	Wm. De Woolf
Polly	James De Woolf
White Horse	Jan de Sweevts
Expedition	John and Jacob Roosevelt
Charlotte	Moses and Sam Levey and Jacob Franks
Caracoa	Moses and Sam Levey

All of the above ship owners belong to one Racial/Religious group. Why then have they not been publically blamed for the slave trade? A cover up of the truth for some reason? Surely not . . .

IS FOLK MUSIC THE REALM OF COMFY JUMPER, SANDAL WEARING CIVIL SERVANTS AND SOCIAL WORKERS? OR IS IT TRULY THE MUSIC OF THE FOLK AND THE LAND?

A Final Conflict distributor explains why we should help to keep Folk music alive in this age of multi-racial 'pop' music and mass brain-washing.

WHEN TUNING into Radio One, or any other 'popular' music station, one is bombarded with a constant stream of perverse messages. We are told by so-called celebrities that all Races must mix and live in "peaceful harmony", and by an ever-growing number of 'stars' that homosexuality is a valid alternative to normal family life.

As Nationalists, we understand that this vile propaganda is encouraged by the people who control the entertainment industry in order to manipulate the thoughts of its, usually young, listeners to such an extent that they actually end up believing their immoral lies.

This leaves the question, that apart from the openly Nationalist bands, what other types of music can offer us a suitable alternative?

I feel that one area that has been largely ignored is folk music. A music that has been handed down to us through generations of our ancestors. It tells of their joys and sorrows, the love and warmth of family life, the beauty of the countryside and (after the industrial revolution) the workers' brutal protest songs against the inhumanity of the huge factories and mills.

Also, every region of the British Isles has it's own unique style of folk music telling of it's customs and traditions. All in all it is a breath of fresh air, away from the Michael Jacksons and 'Right Said Freds' offered to us by the music industry.

Although almost fully ignored by the media, folk music is kept alive by dedicated individuals who refuse to let it quietly be forgotten. Most areas have a folk club where one can enjoy, over a couple of pints, the living history offered to us by folk music. One can listen in the knowledge that it was not mass produced on CD for profit, nor to corrupt the hearts of the young, but merely to enlighten the lives of those who composed, sung and handed it down to their children. This is, I feel, what makes folk music of special interest to modern day Nationalists and why we should make an effort to keep it alive.

ULSTER IS FOREVER BRITISH

Is that what you think? Is that what you believe? It is quite clear to most Ulsterfolk that the only difference between the IRA and our joint London/Dublin government is tactics. The IRA are honest (despite being evil bastards) in that they admit they want a Marxist 'united' Ireland and will happily kill every Ulsterman, woman and child to get it. The prostitutes of Westminster want a Capitalist 'united' Ireland (even if they don't say so publicly) and they don't give a damn how many of us have to die in the process.

Some fools have told us everything will be fine once we have a 'patriotic' government in London. Their advice is to sit back and wait for the BNP, NF or some other group to take power democratically. Whilst waiting for this to happen (if it ever will) no doubt countless Ulsterfolk will be killed by the IRA. Are we to sit here knowing that the next knock on the door could be a Provo gunmen or the RUC to tell us that a close family member is the latest victim? And are we to sit here and wait for the people in Britain to "wake up"?

The people of Ulster (unlike the London government) want to destroy the IRA but are powerless to do so. Only in an independent Ulster will we have the power we need. A growing number of people and groups in Ulster are now promoting independence. We hope that our friends in England, Wales and Scotland will support us in this struggle.

"Self-Determination? The Question Ulster Must Answer", the book by Richard Cameron should be read by everyone who claims to support Ulster. Most bookshops won't sell it and newspapers won't review it. 'They' don't want you to read this book. It looks at government betrayal, the killings, the past and the future. With over thirty chapters it covers most of the things you need to know.

For a copy of "Self-Determination?" send £5.99 (or $10 cash) to:

ULSTER'S VERY EXISTENCE IS IN QUESTION

REVIEWS

BY COLONEL REGINALD SMYTHINGTON-FAULKNER

DEVIL'S GUARD

by George Robert Elford
New English Library. ISBN 0 450 05155 2

The back cover of this book says it is "The brutal and shocking testament of a Nazi mercenary" (an official soldier in fact) and the publishers even go so far as to disassociate themselves from the views espoused in 'Devil's Guard'. So the reader is assured of an interesting read.

Elford met "Hans Josef Wagemueller" in the Far East and learnt of "Wagemueller's" heroic past, of which this book is the story. The book is factual, though the names have been changed to protect the Germans involved-relatives and friends back home and French officials.

We follow "Wagemueller" from being an officer in the Waffen SS, a 'Kopfjaeger' (Headhunter) who'd hunted partisans behind the Eastern Front. The book follows him from the "Czechoslovak" mountains in 1945 awaiting a Soviet attack, to French Indo China (now Vietnam) where he and his German Comrades won victory after victory whilst other Legionaires were slaughtered. "I spent five years in Indo China, fighting the same enemy that I had fought in Russia, wearing another uniform".

If the French were able to fight in the same way as the German battalion in Indo China the war there would have been won and the Communists defeated

This book is well worth reading, despite the odd pro-holocaust bit, which one feels the publishers forced in to avoid it being too "pro-Nazi". You will follow the German battalion through the jungles of asia and it's a story you will never forget. An excellent book.

FALLING DOWN

While the Anti Nazi League have been pulling their hair out over the poor film 'Romper Stomper' (see 'Reviews' last issue) because of the Racist attacks in it another film seems to have slipped through without any opposition.

FALLING DOWN stars Jewish actor Michael Douglas. His character loses his job, wife and child, goes haywire and starts attacking all the things that he hates in life.

It is here that the film becomes interesting. He attacks a Korean shop owner because of his inflated prices. He smashes up the shop after venting his anger about foreign aid. His next victims are Puerto Ricans in gangland who attempt to rob him (shades of Bernard Goetz here). He ridicules their beliefs before hitting them with the baseball bat he took from the Korean store.

His next attack is on a McDonalds style burger bar which he shoots up after some cracking dialogue about the meals not being the same as the advertising pictures.

Then the liberals obviously regains control of their senses for a while and have Douglas kill a 'Hollywood' style Nazi who drones on about how Hitler gassed the Jews. But after this he enters a large private golf club which ends with him killing a Capitalist who is pretty obviously portrayed as a Jew.

To say too much would be to spoil the film for anyone who wishes to see it. It is difficult to see what Hollywood wanted to acheive with this film. Where I saw it, it was packed with people who cheered every killing he made.

There is no way this film compares to the Hollywood boobs like the classics 'The House of Rothschild' and 'The Betrayed', but it is more enjoyable than the average film and films like Romper Stomper.

FATHER COUGHLIN IN ACTION
1 HOUR. BLACK AND WHITE.
In 1930's America the most famous voice was that of Fr. Coughlin, the 'Radio Priest' and leader of the 'Christian Front' and the 'National Union for Social Justice'. From his Church in Royal Oak, Michigan, Fr. Coughlin broadcast to millions of Americans every week before WW2 and spoke to mass rallies of tens of thousands of American Patriots. His message has been called 'clerical fascism' and because of his repeated calls for America to avoid war his ministry, organisations, and public name were destroyed by the usual vested interests.

See the largest rallies ever held in the U.S. This video also features Gerald L.K. Smith and Huey Long - men who named the enemy at great personal risk (Huey Long Owas assassinated in 1936). A remarkable record of the genuine face of America; this video contains some of the greatest orators ever. Miss them at your peril.

THE PAGE THAT'S QUITE INTERESTING 'COS YOU WRITE IT

TRAIN-SPOTTERS

Dear Sir,

I must say that Final Conflict is a very good read, otherwise you won't print my letter. I am writing to express my outrage at some of the things you print about Jews. To say that I was shocked, saddened and well ped off by page 5 in FC3 would be an understatement. Printing an editors comment that the views expressed are the author's and not necessarily those of FC is just a bloody liberal cop out.

The bit I refer to was printed under the heading "Words of Wisdom" and was a poem written by Hilaire Belloc. The first line is "I am fond of Jews". What an appaling thing to say. I do not think that this statement is justifiable in any circumstance, so don't print more like it again.

Yours,
P.J., the Turnip Farmer.

PRISONERS

Dear FC,

I want you to know that FC is one of the best zines I have read in a while. I really want to thank you for putting our ad in. I am working hard at trying to make this project grow, so the prisoners can also be helped. Right now it is the families that we help with money, bills, clothes, and summer camp for the children.

Racial Regards,
V.H., (F.A.P.),

RELIGION

Dear FC,

I'm writing because I'm fed up of people slagging off Christianity in fanzines as being liberal, wishy washy etc. They usually give examples of Bishops who've supported liberals, Marxists etc.

Of course the Church has been taken over by liberals, no one can deny that, but it doesn't make the Church itself wrong. Take a look at what the Church has done: who was it that saved Europe from the Muslims? Who has condemned Usury, Communism, Capitalism, Zionism, Freemasonry and Jewish power in general?

It is true that the mainstream Church is now riddled with Freemasonry and is allying itself with the Jewish powers, but it's just a bad patch and hopefully it'll pull through.

We are lucky Christianity has survived at all in that the Jewish/Masonic media has done everything possible to destroy it or water it down so that it becomes unrecognisable.

Being a Christian and a Nationalist is not unrealistic, it is in fact natural. Leon Degrelle, Jose Antonio, G.K. Chesterton, Fr. Fahey, Corneliu Codreanu, Fr. Coughlin, Franco, Fr. Tiso, Marshal Petain, Salazar, Hilaire Belloc, Pavelic these and many other Nationalists were Christians and I would defy anyone to call them liberals,

CASTLEREAGH

Dear FC,

thanks for the stickers and superior magazine. The articles in issue 3 were excellent reading, especially the " Day Trip' to Castlereagh" one. That's why I've enc. $2 in return for the reprints from Nationalism Today and NF News. This material is necessary reading for all activists worldwide. Thanks again and keep up the seditious work with the humorous touch,

C.A.,
S. Carolina, USA.

GOD VS. FREDDIE

Dear FC,

Christian clergymen all say that they agree with the Bible and that everything in it is right. Not all of them stand by this. Rev. Richard Gamble recently organised a "Freddie meets Jesus" event at his Church. The "Freddie" is the former singer of 'Queen' who was a homosexual and died of AIDS. The reason was to attract young people to Christianity.

As a Church leader Rev. Gamble must surely be aware of Bible teachings regarding homosexuality, for example in Leviticus 20:13- "If a man lie with mankind as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

The New Testament also gives the same warning. Romans Chapter 1- "Men committed indecent acts with other men and received within themselves the due penalty for their perversion (AIDS?), they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death."

My plea is that we get back to reading the Bible, the true source of Christian teachings, and that these "preachers" who are watering down our teachings are thrown out and not allowed to taint Christianity with their vile and offensive filth.

Yours Sincerely,
K.W., Bradford,
England.

ED.'S NOTE: For a cracking read, we suggest Pastor P.J. Peters's 'Intolerance of, Discrimination Against and the Death Penalty for Homosexuals is Prescribed in the Bible' available from Final Conflict for just £2 inc. post and packing.

PRAISE INDEED

Dear Chums,

thanks awfully for your rip-roaring magazine. We all enjoyed it terribly and are looking forward (with baited breath) to the next issue.

Good to see fellow fascists supporting the cause of animal liberation - keep up the good work,

IN THE HEART OF THE BEAST

Dear FC,

Best of greetings. Many thanks for FC#3. It's excellent. Also thanks for the great review of our "OTT" LP. Just wait till you hear the next one. . .

Your ideals coincide with the Hammerskins. We see the problem of the White man in another country as a problem of ours. Plus being that we live in the heart of the Beast our work is very important to those of other Nations,

YES, IT'S THAT WHACKY RON AGAIN - AND BOY, DOES HE HATE LIBERALS!

BACK CHAT WITH RANTING RON

I hear that Sharon Davies, the ex-Olympic swimmer and Race traitor, is pregnant by and going to marry a black. How nicely 'right on' of her. # I heard about that Palestinian bunch 'Hamas' who go around stabbing "Israelis". Naturally I was horrified, as any decent, normal, rational, law-abiding citizen of Her Majesty's United Kingdom would be. Is no one going to give them guns? Seriously though, I hear Hamas was started in the USA and could be a CIA front group. # So, the weirdos in Waco, USA committed mass suicide did they? Oh yes, they took a well known poison called "FBI", usually fatal (ask Randy Weaver, Bob Mathews etc. etc.) # Glad to see the faggots got a kicking when they tried to occupy Westminster Cathedral last Palm Sunday. A poof leader claimed it was a priest who beat him up. Good going Rev.

Yes, it's... THE RON AWARDS

We start this issue with the "Big Thumbs Up" award which goes to 'The Masked Avenger' (pictured on the left). He tells me his hobbies are shooting Feds and popping off members of the "Zionist lobby" in Washington, DC. But as he's never been to the USA I'd advise readers to take that with a pinch of salt. He informs me that the stylish flag he's holding was liberated from a famous seaside resort . Well done to the mysterious fashion guru known as 'The Masked Avenger', I'm sure we'll be seeing more of him in the near future.

This issue's "All Time Loser" award is split amongst all those (financial backers, presenters, TV crews etc.) who bring us the 'Eurovision Song Contest'. Not only is it complete and utter bilge - how is it Turkey and Israel get in? They're about as European as Ghana and Taiwan - oops, I'd better shut up or they'll be in next years' contest. What a pointless load of old steamy crud. Hang them all.

Fischer makes bad move

New York (JTA) -

Chess genius Bobby Fischer, a Jew, made headlines last week after spewing anti-semitic remarks in Yugoslavia, the site of his rematch with Russian Boris Spassky.

"The United Nations had this pretty good resolution equating Zionism with racism and now it's been rescinded." Fischer said Tuesday, the day before his match began. "Well, I think it was a good resolution."

Fischer described Communism as a mask for Bolshevism and Bolshevism as a mask for Judaism, and then indicated he was perplexed at being termed an anti-Semite.

"Arabs are also Semites and I'm definately not anti-Arab," he said.

Abraham Foxman, national director of the Anti-Defamation League, said that Fischer's remarks prove that "genius is no guarantee of wisdom." - Reprinted from The Canadian Jewish News, 10 September, 1992.
